VOL. 2.

"ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY."

PANOLA, MI., SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1846.

NO. 5

THE LYNX.

Finted and published every SATURDAY pro DOLLARS in advance. Advertisemen's inserted for one dollar per square (of ten lines or less,) for the first insertion, and fifty cents for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements of a personal nature will in variably be charged double price of ordinary ad.

YEARLY ADVERTISING .-- A deduction will b vettisements. made to those who advertise by the year to a suf frient amountto make it for the interest of mer-Advertisements ont of the direct line of business of the yearly advertiser will be charged for seperately at the ordinary rates. Professional cards, not alterable for the year, contanig ten lines or lees ton dollars. The dames of eardidates for county offices will be inserted for five dollars, payable always in odvance, and State offices ten dollars. Election tickets will never be delivered until

Political circulars or communications of only an Individual interest, will be charge at half price of ordinary advertisements and must be paid in

Advertisements not marked with the number of asertions will be continued 'till torbid, and any alterations made after insertion charged extra. Advertising patrons will favor us by handing in their advertisements as early after our regular amblication days as convenient -not later in any case if possible, than Thursday night. All JOB-WORK must be paid for on deliv-

Postage must be paid on all letters; or they wil pot be attended to

Mail Arrangements,

The Mail from Mamphis arrives on Tuesday and Saturday's at 12 o'clock moon, and depart for Memphis at I o'clock the same days. The Mail from Oxford arrives on Weilne mornia s at 7 o'clock.

The Mail from Carrollton, arrives Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock, and departs on Montby mornings at 5 o'clock.

The Mail for Carrollton closes on Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock.

nings at 8 o'clock. The Mail for Memphis closes on Tuescay's and Saturdays at 12 o'clock acon.

PETERSON'S LADIES National Magazine.

MAGNIFICENT VOLUME FOR 1845.

EDITED BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS.

The Ladic ' National Magazine, is now so well established and so favorably known, that, by general consent of the newspaper press, it is

HEAD OF THE LADIES BOOKS. Its literary conters, like those of the three dolhar Magraines, are all privinal, and from the most calebrated American writers of both sexes. The contributions to this periodical are a constart group of the taste, and ability of our beexclusively a mirror of their minds, or is so generally supported by them. The compats are of every variety, and while usually of the lighter kind, do not preclude the insertion of papers of more value. Fitted alike to the bould's and the freelds, the & Ladies National," presents monthly an agreeable veriety of domestic sketenes, tales of lashingable life, ramances of hietory, poems, critical notices of living authors, new receipts for the house-keeper, directions for Eashionable embroidery, descriptions of the fachious, gossip af our eastern metropolis, musical intelligence, &c., &c., comprisi g, in short, all that a lady would wish to know o objects of interest transpiring during the month.

These contents, instead of being, like those of the other two dollar maguzines, make up chiefly plead guilty to the charge of attemptby selections from old newspapers and other sec- ing to make the Rover the best, the and hand sources, are written expressly for ha; cheapest for the price, among the vari-CONTENTS ARE ALL ORIGINAL placed the editorial charge of the magazine in the ter, with a beautiful steel engraving, hands of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, acknowledged and is done up in a highly embellishby all critics to be, the best magazine writer in ed illuminated cover, making two volthe world. Those who have read her thrilling stories of "Alice Copley," . "Malina Gray," "Ann Taylor," and " Clara," need no proof of 52 steel plates. her exalted genius. She will be assisted by the strongest corps of contributors ever yet arrayed in the constant support of any ladies, Magazine .-At the head of this list is Mrs. Lydia II. Sig-

Mrs A. M. F. Annan, Mrs L. J. Peirson, Mrs E. F. Ellett, Mrs F. S. Osgood, Mrs. M. St, Leon Loud Mrs. Ana S. Stephens, Mrs. P. W. B. Carothers, Mrs Amelia Welby, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Mrs. Soba Smith, Mrs C. Lee Hentz. "F. E. F." Author of "Marriage of Convenience Miss M. L. Lawson, Mrs. Caroline Orne, Miss Ellen Ashton, & o. During the ensuing year, a new feature will be introduced, in the publication of a series of

TALES OF AMERICAN HISTORY, illustrative of the manners and stirring incidents of different periods in our country's history .-The first of these, a story of the regulation, from The first of these, a story of the readlation, from the pen of "The Author of cruising in the Last heen sustained by the public, through Jew of Arragon. In consequence of War, " will appear in January, and be followed its infancy and up to the present time, bert, and others of our best writers. The critical although left to make its own way in portraits of female poets will still be continued, the world without any extraneous aid portraits of temale poets will still be continued, and stories of a domestic character, from the well or influence, is a recommendation of ident of the French council: 1 beheld by the packetship Yorkshire. known pens of Mrs, Annao, F. E. F., and Ellen its character and an evidence of public the son of a French Jew, a hero, an Ashson, will continually appear.

GREAT PREZE PICTURES.—In order that the try, the publisher intends publishing, in January any material change in the plan of the and February, two superb premium pietures, far superior to any yet itsued in the magazines .-

A MEZZOTINT BY SARTIN, er been equalled by that inimitable artist. The ty to increase the value of the work. will appear in January, and has confessedly nevsecond, to appear in Pebruary, is the first of a seustrate great event in American annals, especial- rs are authorized by law to forward ly those in which women figured. The first is a hacription money free of charge. MEZZOTINT OF WASHINGTON AT 18! Engraved from a picture never before made publie. This feature will make the book unequalled, and those who wish to secure the whole seres most send their money early. - We here state, what is undeniable, that during 1844, we published MEZZOTINTS OFTENER THAN ANY RIVAL, and shall continue to do so for 1845. Those to the " Nations," will get these oftener than in any other January and

Gallery of Beauty. The Gallery of American Beauty will be a feature of this book, in which will constantly appear portraits of the most beautiful of the sez .-Another characteristic will be

AMERICAN LANDSCAPES. The other illustrations shall be executed by distinguished either for pictueresque beauty or for historical associations.

The osher illustratations shall be executed by tee first American Artists, and be in every variety and style, viz; Line and Stipple Engravings; Colored Flowers and Birds; Lace Work Quarre's Superb Designs, &c. In short every variety of embellishments, executed by the best artists, shall continue to grace says: our book. We shall be the first to seize the novelties of the day!

As elegance and economy in dress are "conally esirable, we offer great indocements to country readers, in our monthly descriptions of the fashions, accompanied by our gorered plate, which hundred years they have been plun- Many of the most intelligent, influe give at least, two months in advance of every cotemporary, being enabled to do this from pletely have we outstripped all rivalry in this point, that the other magazines now only occacostumes will be indespensable to the sez, in ordar to keep the run of the changes in dress. But wered in their national faith. in order that other illustrations may not have to give place for them, we shall publish

Our Fashion Plates Extra

as any other two dollar magazine and the fash-

on plate besides! And in order that our lady subscribers may be accounted with the novelties of the day, we shall publish, as soon as they come out, in our world. We are used to consider Jews throughout the world; and when evday evenings, at 7 o'clock, and departs Tuesday | "Home Department," new receipts in Cookery, new styles in Embroidery, new patters for Lace

THE TERMS .- The Cash system adopted nd main ained by the publisher, enables him to offer a Magnaine, in every respect equal to the universities of Europe, as being mem- tion. old three dollar magazines at one-third less cost. The price of Peterson's Nationallis therefor The Mail for Oxford closes on Monday eve- oly TWO DOLLARS per annum, cash, in ad national armies to victory, and as sitces, from post-towns where there is no local

Lopy $2.00 perannum 3 copies $5,00 per annum S copies, $10,00 persament,

17 copies $20,00 per anoum. For $5,00 we will send one copy of the Satur lay Courier and two copies of the "National," This money must be current funds, and sen

To every Postmuster, or other person getting to a club, we will said our annual for 1845, o. soriber we will send, if required, a new novel.—Or for every Club at 17, or two Clubs of 8, or for cratis for one year.

Addrsss, CHARLES J, PETERSON.

THE KOVER.

Fourth volume commencing on the 21st of Sept. 1844.

WEEKLY MAGAZINE

WIT, ROMANCE AND ART, Edited by Sena Smith, and published by S. B. Denn & Co. Na. 123 Fulton St., New York,

Without intending or wishing to disparage other works, the publishers ous periodicals of the country. Each weekly number contains, sixteen large ry department is conducted, the publisher has pages of beautifully printed choice mat-

The work has now lived to an age to give it in some degree a character to speak for itself, and to warrant confiourney, who will, hereafter, be a regular doubling to sound onr own praises, but let our St. Petersburgh. I had, on my arrival, Atlantic. works, if they will praise us. We have labored hard to make a magazine for the great mass of the community, bly be offered for the price, combining was connected with the affairs of Spain. bergs. nating a taste for the arts and encouraging a whelesome and elevated literabecome us to say. That the Rover has myself the son Nuovo Christiano, a sentiment in its favor, which makes us pictorial department may stand first in the coun- both gratified and grateful. Without work we shall enter upon the fourth if not those who worship the lord of volume of the work with a stendy pur- Hosts?" pose to sustain its interest and usefulness, and to embrace every opportunitain the national character of his work—the publisher has projected. These are intended to il-

Commission Merchant. 74 CAMPSTREET, NEW ORLEANS

William O. Wilson, Agent.

Blanks-for sale here.

From the Pittsburgh Chronicle.

The Jews. Dr. Durbin, in his "Observations on the East," has a very interesting chapter on the restoration of the Jews-the prophicies in relation thereto-and the "signs of the time" which indicate their speedy fulfillment .- Our object in reference to this "Rosini, Meyerbeer, Mendelosohm-

PARIS FASHIONS IN ADVANCE. kable for religion, and hatred the do they suspect, that they are offto idolatry, than for their dispersion, ering their homage to the sweet sinunity and sympathy. For eighteen gers of Israel.' dered, trodden down, banished, and ential, and patriotic citizens of Balti prespondents in London and Paris. So com- put to death in a thousand forms, all more are of the Heprew race. The ionally famish the fashions. But as long as ded by renounceing their religion. of Maryland, they were precluded raste in dress is desirable, patterns of the latest Yet, as a people, they have never wa- from holding office under the State; their sympathy, their religious zeal, just policy, they have become entitled and their hatred to idolatry, is to be to the same privileges as other citizen .. That is we shall give as many embellishments added the very little-observed fact of We trust that the time will arrive their literary and political, as well as when all civilized distinctions between commercial influence throughout the the Jew and Gentile will be abolished only as pedlers or money-jobbers; we ery man shall be permitted to worship have not been accustomed to think of God according to his own inclination, as occupying professorships in the first unrestrained by the fear of persecubers of national senates, as leading on ting in the cabinets of kings. Anni-TO CLI 28-In order to facilitate remittan | hilate them, their property, their inagent, the publisher offers the following termscoe fluence, and their relations with society, and the world would receive a shock from which it would not recover for-centuries. The following passages, quoted from B. D'Israeli, himself a Jew, and a member of the British Parliament, may require a little abatement in the score of national bias and the manner in which the facts are put, any of the new novels! For every $2,00 sab- but the great outlines they are true. It is the language of a Rothschild, Class of 3, we will sail a copy of the Magazine under the title of Sidonia, to Conings-

"You never observe a great intellectual movement in Europe in which the Jews do not greatly participate. The first Jesuits were Jews; that mysterious Russian diplomacy, which so alarms Western Europe, is organized of Tales, Poetry, Legends, and principally carried on by Jews; that mighty revolution, which is this moment preparing in Germany, and which will be, in fact, a second and greater reformation, and of which so little is as yet known in England, is entirely developing under the auspices of Jews, who almost monopolize the professional chairs of Germany. Noander, the founder of spiritual Christianity, and who is Regius Professor in the University of Berlin, is a Jew. Benary, equally famous in the same umes a yeur, comprising 832 pages and university, is a Jew. I think there are more than ten profssors in this university who are Jews.

an interview with the Russian minister that should be the best that could possi- son of a Lithuanian Jew. The loan amusement with instruction, dissemi- I resolved on repairing to Spain from sion. I had an audience immediately Liverpool of the 6th ultimo. How far we have been successful in on my arrival with the Spanish minthe attainment of these objects does not ister, Mendizabel: I beheld one, like what transpired at Madrid, I went straight to Paris to consult the Presimporial marshal, and very properly so, for who should be military heroes

"And is Soult a Hebrew?" "Yes, and several of the French marshals, and the famous Massena, for afour consultation was, that some Northern power should be applied to in a friendly and meditative capacity. We fixed on Prussia, and the President of the council made ar appliattended a few days after our conference. Count Arnim entered the cabinet, and I beheld a Prussian Jew. So treaty. you see, my dear Coningsby, that the world is governed by very different those who are not behind the scenes."

every greater composer, skilled musician-almost every voice that ravishsprings from our tribe."

chapter is, to make some extracts which the three great creative minds (says we consider of interest, as they will he) are of Hebrew race." He continand Entroidery, Pictures executed in Tints, tend to remove a prejudice too common ues-"Little do men of fashion-your amongst the unreflecting. Dr. Durbin 'musicians' of Paris, and your ladies of London-as they thrill into raptures "The Jews are scarcely less remar- at the notes of a Pasta or a Grisi, lit-of which evils they might have avoi- time was, when by the Constitution but the restriction was wisely with "To their dispersion, their unity, drawn, and, under a more liberal and

> From the South Missourian. To GENTLEMEN WITH WHISKERS. AN ANSWER. Men, at first, 'tis said. Were very well made, But blemishes now may be found, The great ugly creatures Deform all their features, And rough shaggy faces abound.

No faces of hair. Can gull the poor fair, We care not a fig for the varments, Who delightfully doat On a beard like a goat; [sarpents We'd as leave be in league with the

From tonsorial art, Mon's son's new depart, [razor, I ispensing with soap, brush and They grin as a monkey, Look sad as a donkey, And pasture like Nebuchadnezzar!

We ne'er will caress, As you may well guess, [tures Nor cherish the odd looking crea-But we do declare, Not a groat do we care, For beasts of such horrible features,

If men will now choose, The razor to use, And harken to our sweet whispers We'll wear bustles no more, Behind nor before, [whiskers. If the hard sex will lop off their ARRIVAL OF THE PACKETSHIP TORONTO.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. The splendid packet ship Toronto, Captain Tinker, has just arrived from "A few years back we were applied London and Portsmouth, after having dence in its stability. We prefer not to by Russia. I resolve to go myself to made a very quick passage over the

> She saild from Portsmouth on the 9th of finance, Count Cancrin: I beheld the uit. and in lat. 45, long. 47 to 43, passed through a continued field of ice-

> The advices from London which we Russia. I travelled without intermis- have thus received, are of the 7th, and

The news is of a very favorable char-

Cotton was firm.

The London Chronicle of the 4th ult., contains a long article relative to the intelligence from America, carried out

Relating to the notice contained in the President's Message, the Chronicle

"This notice to terminate the convention of 1827, may it is suggested, be followed by fresh negotiation. If not, war is inevitable. If we receive notice that the joint occupation shall cease in 1847 England nor America could remain in- anger!" active pending the termination of this

"We should be virtually at war from the day we get notice that at the end of stand why it is so. Yes, the wind now would have called it a rumpus."

Polk be carried out-if contemporane- not wonderful!" ously with giving notice to terminate the treaty, the American Government begins to occupy, sends in its pioneers, from my son?" and buildaits stockades and forts, would it be possible to regard such measures in any other light than as a declara-

"Again it says, it cannot be too strongly impressed upon the American public that to adopt a resolution to give the year's notice, so far from facilitating, as they suppose it would do, the progress of the negotiations, would be a fact to provide for their certain failure before we had entered upon them. We are anxious that this opinionwhich is, we believe, the opinion of the opinion of the great bulk of the people of this country-may be known in king, he said: "May it please your ma-America while there is yet time for it jesty, I have received your proclamation to influence the decision of a moment- and wish to comply with its requisitions; ous question."

THE WIND.

ather, as it felt the play of the mora-

"Father, where does the wind come

"From heaven," said the father. "And where does it go to?"

"It goes back to heaven again, my child, and again to earth returns. It is the breath of the Great Spirit of beneficience from whom we receive all hapbiness and all joy. Changing seasons are organied to make the earth happy said, "will your majesty condescend to and beautiful for us, and then we are breathed upon as is most conductive to our good. Have you not sometimes wished it would be always summer?

"Yes, father." "And at another time sighed that winter were not always ""

"Yes, father." "Then you must see that the Ruler of the seasons knows better than yourself what is best for you, as your own wishes were inconsistent."

"Yes, father, I see now." roaming spirit of the wide universe-is a lusty fellow sitting upon the curb, ever near us and hovering over us. It with his feet in the gutter, and leaning kisses the sick man's temple, and the against the iron post of one of the gas suffering invalid lifts up his eye in hope. lamps. It was poor Tim Lightbody, It plays with the breathing of the sin- and the terrors of delirium tremens had less infant and weaves smiles upon its dimpled cheek. It is the essence of life and breath, and you my boy, are where does the wind come from?"

"From heaven, father?" "Yes, from heaven; and it comes to chattering sprite, and as it disappeared bless the earth. Were there no wind, down the neck of a bottle, he lifted up my son this beautiful world would be a his voice and cried lustily, "Put me out! stagnant waste, and you arched sky, Put me out! Fire! Spontaneous comnow so magnificiently adorned by the bustion has, has, took place! I'm in a rising sun, would change to some wild light blaze Sir! Away, away! ye wirey and strange confusion."

"Does not the wind whisper?" fa-verse with it, and it shall tell you of its Blow down my throat, quick! its rederrand to earth. Pause when the lone- hot! Oh, somebody put me out! Put me ly airs are calling stilly music from out?"!. leaf and bough in summer eventime And then the watchmen took him in watch as the stars peep forth, and the charge, and put him in the watch-house, wind shall whisper to your heart of where he raved till morning, and then,

"Does not the wind how!?" father. deur and the might of the Omnipotence. ly snuffed out the light of life many -If you have learned to joy in its balmy millions of times, and filled numberless breathing, you must also know the great graves with nameless, loathsome, unstrength and glory of the wind. Is it wept mortals .- These are thy doings, not wonderful my son? Even as this all-destroying Alcohol! infant rivulet beneath us (upon which that dancing sunbeam) has just alighted piercing the leafy forest shade above a year; two copies for five dollars, and example; his real name was Manassah; and if nothing more be done than the rolls on and on, smiles, leagues, and pare at the end of the year's notice, ing until at last it plunges into the vast firmly to "maintain" our rights. Let desert of water that rolls around the us not in our deep anxiety for the pre- globe, so can this gentle west wind, now servation of peace, lose sight of the po- so soft, rouse into a rage and terror, sition into which we shall be driven by and fright the land and lash the ocean cation to the President minister, who the event we are speaking of. Neither with the tornado's wild and shricking

"It is wonderful, father!" believe so though we tmay not under-personages to what is imagined by a specific time, America was determin- sporting with the leaves around, may ed to maintain what she regards as her tear these rooted trees from the firm D'Israeli also claims that "almost rights in Oregon. And that is, sup- earth, drive them like feathers along posing no other proceeding is adopted the land, dash off the mountain cone, than to give the specified notice. But and whirl it into a vale, prostrate cities, es you with its trasporting strains, if the other recommendations of Mr. and turn the course of the seas! Is it

"Wonderful, father!" "Then, where does the wind come

"From heaven, father!"

A KING'S CAUSE OF THANKFULNESS .--At the close of the American Revolution, Geo. III. king of Great Britain, issued a proclamation, appointing a day of thanksgivings for the return of peace. A shrewd country clergyman in Scotland, upon reading the proclamation, immediately proceeded to England, and having arrived at the royal palace, solicited a personal audience with the king. Being admitted, with some difficulty, to the royal presence, after making his humble obeisance to the but I have come all the way from Scotland to ascertain what we are to give thanks for. Is it that your majesty has By Phazma .- A child once said to its lost thirteen flourishing provinces?" The good natured king perceiving the ing breeze through its waving ring- humor of the man, replied "No mun, not at all." "Is it, then," said the Scotchman, "that you have sacrificed the lives of a hundred thousand of his loyal subjects?" The king again replid, "No mun, nothing of the kind."-Again the scotchman inquired, "Is it that your majesty has added a hundred millions to the national debt?" The king again answered, "No mun, for none of these things." The Scotchman then inform me explicitly, for what we are to give thanks?" The king replied. "Why mun, manifestly for 'this, that matters are no worse with us than they are." The good man returned home entirely satisfied, and preached an excellent thanksgiving sermon on Isaiah

"PUT ME OUT! PUT ME OUT!"-The guardians of the night in Albany, were not a little surprised to hear, from a lowly gutter, late one night last week, a sharp earnest cry, "Put me out! Put "The wind, my dear son-the far- me out!" On drawing near they found overtaken him in the gutter .- His brain was on fire and his vita's burning up with rum. And now, as he leaned back inhabiting it. You know you did not against the post, so that the full glare make it, yet you feel that it is necessa- of the brilliant gas light shone into his ry for your very life-that without it wild and bloodshot cyss, an Imp of the you would fall down and expire; then, Distillery whispered in his ear that his head was on fire! And poor Tim was in a condition to listen to the grinning, goblins! I know ye all! Ye are matches; lucifer matches! Ye set me in a blaze! Put me out! Water! Water! Blow in "Yes, child, you may learn to con- my, my, ears-if they ain't burnt out!

very early in the day, died. Poor fellow! He was "put out" most effectual-"Yes, boy, and then it tells the gran- ly, and by an agent that has premature-

> AN EXTRAORDINARY COMET.-Lieut. Maury, superintendant of the Washington Observatory, announces a most extraordinary comet. It appeared by various observations to be-if possible-"a comet with a statellite, or a comet with two nuclei, without any visible intermingling of cometary matter between them!" Is this the herald of war? A comet is certainly a fit forerunner to such a catastrope!

OFA lady of our acquaintance once "And it is wise my son, and we must remarked that "if she had had the naming of a bustle in the first place, she